Matrix House, Bradford Road
Wrenthorpe, Wakefield
WF2 0QH, United Kingdom

Directions...

- Road: Wakefield is in an enviable position at the heart of the UK's travel network at one of the most important crossroads in the country. The M1, which is the major north south highway, intersects the only major highway across the country, the M62. Matrix House is situated just off J41 of the M1.
- Train: Wakefield is served by the East Coast line and has a high speed Inter City connection to London's King Cross. Wakefield Europort provides the whole of the Yorkshire and Humberside region with a direct rail link to Europe via the Channel Tunnel.
- Air: Wakefield is only 21 miles from Leeds Bradford International Airport, providing quick and easy access from all major UK and European destinations. For those who are travelling from further afield, Manchester Airport is only 1 hours drive away.
